FARMING IN ZAMBIA & MALAWI

Join Josh and Hannah Ronalds, two of Gippsland's favourite agronomists, as they prepare for a new adventure.

In 2027, Josh and Hannah will travel to Africa to work with Foundations for Farming, a program helping families grow food, care for their land and strengthen their livlihoods.

THE WORK
What they'll be doing on the ground with African farming families

THE PRACTICES
The farming practices they'll be sharing and how they will be helping others with practical skills

THE WHY
Their reasons for taking on this work and the sense of service behind it

Bring your curiosity, questions and passion for farming. Everyone is welcome, with a light lunch provided.
